Crime Continues Downward Trend in Rockville 'Part I' Crimes Down 32 Percent Over a Decade

The Rockville City Police Department reported a 4.2 percent overall decrease in crime in 2015, continuing an 11-year period in which Rockville has seen significant crime reduction.

Each year, the department prepares a comparative uniform crime report based on the FBI's reporting program. Data is coded as Part I or Part II offenses. Part I crimes are crimes against persons (murder, rape, robbery, assault) and crimes against property (burglary, larceny, theft and arson). Part II crimes include simple assault, curfew offenses, loitering, embezzlement, forgery and counterfeiting, disorderly conduct, driving under the influence, drug and alcohol offenses, fraud, gambling, vandalism, and weapons offenses.

Part I offenses decreased by 32 percent between 2005 and 2015.

From 2014 to 2015, reports of Part I offenses decreased by 2 percent, while Part II crimes decreased by 6.1 percent. Rockville saw decreases in robberies, burglaries and auto thefts.

Despite the overall decrease, the number of reported rapes in the city increased from 10 to 23. In all but two of the incidents, the offender was known to the victim.

There were two homicides. One involved domestic child abuse. The other was the result of an attack by a former boyfriend.

Mayor and Council Name Acting City Manager Nationwide Search for a New City Manager to Begin

Craig L. Simoneau was appointed Rockville's acting city manager in February.

He succeeds Barbara B. Matthews, who served as city manager since October 2012. The Mayor and Council will conduct a national search for a new city manager.

Simoneau had served as Rockville's public works director since September 2005. As the public works director he oversaw the city's move to a new refuse and single-stream recycling program; implementation of sustainable water and sewer rehabilitation programs; and recovery from the 2010 "snowmageddon" storm, the 2012 derecho, and this year's blizzard.

Before coming to Rockville, he spent over 22 years as a career Army officer in various leadership positions. He supervised a broad range of functions, including public works, contracting, finance, legal, information technology, human resources, equal employment, internal review and emergency operations.

Craig L. Simoneau, acting city manager.

Immediately before arriving in Rockville, he served as the public works director at Fort Monroe, Va., where he led an organization of 117 employees responsible for constructing, operating and maintaining all base facilities. Simoneau also was responsible for executing a $103 million repair and reconstruction program to effectively recover from Hurricane Isabel damage.

Simoneau is a licensed professional engineer. He is a graduate of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, and has a master's degree in civil engineering from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. ✚

Rockville's MFD Program Expands its Outreach Procurement Division Continues Work to Build Relationships with Vendors

Rockville continues to establish a strong program for outreach to the minority-, female- and disabled-owned (MFD) business community with a presence at business events, information gathering about MFD vendors and the first technical assistance meeting with an MFD business.

As part of the MFD program, which the Mayor and Council created last year, members of the city's Procurement Division (formerly known as the Purchasing Division) are available to meet one-on-one with vendors to provide assistance and education in navigating the city's bidding process. The division conducted its first technical assistance meeting with a woman-owned business after the business owner learned of the initiative through a "Rockville Reports" article. To request a technical assistance meeting, call 240-314-8434.

Procurement Division staff attended seven business events between Jan. 1 and mid-March and plans to attend at least five more by the end of the fiscal year on June 30. Staff attended two Rockville Chamber of Commerce networking events and attended the U.S. Pan Asian American Chamber of Commerce (USPAACC) Business Connections & Networking meeting in January.

Staff also met with the Minority Business Economic Council to explore best prac-

Work Continues to Improve ADA Access in City Facilities June Completion for Access Audits and Some Projects

The city is making progress on an audit of its facilities for compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and is developing a transition plan for completing projects identified by the audit. The remaining access audit of all city parks and facilities should be completed by June 30.

The Mayor and Council heard a presentation on Feb. 22 of the ADA audit and transition plan by Recreation Accessibility Consultants, LLC. The study audited current conditions in city parks and facilities and provided a plan to improve accessibility for all. ### Professors, Public Works Staff to Explore the Transformation of Watts Branch

Peerless Rockville Presents 'Lessons From Leopold'

Geomorphologist and hydrologist Luna Leopold's groundbreaking 30-year study of the Watts Branch watershed in Rockville observed the long-term effects of the development of modern suburbs that transformed the environment. This Earth Month, Peerless Rockville invites the public to learn about these historical changes and modern environmental management.

Andy Miller, a professor of geography and environmental systems at the University of Maryland, Baltimore County, and Karen Prestegard, a professor of geology at the University of Maryland, College Park, will join staff from Rockville's Department of Public Works for an illustrated exploration of the environmental history and modern environmental management of the Watts Branch watershed, from 2:30-4 p.m. on Saturday, April 16 at the Rockville Senior Center, Arts and Crafts Room, 1150 Carnation Drive.

The free presentation will examine how Leopold documented the watershed's transformation from farmland to suburbs. It will also look at how lessons from Leopold continue to inform today's environmental policies and can help modern suburban community members understand how to better protect their local environment.

Peerless Rockville is a nonprofit that works in partnership with the City of Rockville to preserve buildings, objects and information important to Rockville's heritage. To learn more, visit www.peerlessrockville.org or call 301-762-0096.

Make Every Day Earth Day: Green Tips for Your Wallet, Home and Community

GREEN YOUR BACKYARD

- Prevent mosquitoes: Remove or turn over buckets, kiddie pools, garbage cans, flower pots, old tires and other containers, and check downspouts so there is no standing water where mosquitoes can breed.
- Rockville's RainScapes Rewards program (www.rockvillemd.gov/rainscapes) provides rebates for rain barrels, the removal of pavement or turf, and landscaping with native trees, shrubs and plants.
- Create a certified wildlife habitat on your property that includes food, water, cover and a place for wildlife to raise young. Help Rockville to become a Community Wildlife Habitat (www.rockvillemd.gov/wildlifehabitat) by seeking certification with the National Wildlife Federation.

PREVENT POLLUTION AND WASTE

- Recycle more and trash less. Rockville's recycling and refuse program (www.rockvillemd.gov/recycling-refuse) provides comprehensive collection services for single-family homes and most townhouses, including single-stream recycling, weekly yard waste collection and seasonal leaf vacuuming in April. (Find the article on page 8.)
- Prevent clogged pipes and sewer backups by scraping pots, pans and plates. Dispose of fats, oils, grease and food scraps in the trash can.
- Pick up after your pet by bagging pet waste and disposing of it in the trash – never down a storm drain where it pollutes waterways.
- Report water pollution by calling the 24-hour spill hotline at 240-314-8348.

USE ENERGY AND WATER WISELY

- Reduce transportation fuel consumption and carbon dioxide emissions by walking, biking (www.rockvillemd.gov/bicycling) or using transit (www.rockvillemd.gov/transit).
- Reduce vehicle idling to save money and energy, and to keep the air clean. Maryland's anti-idling law prohibits idling for more than five minutes.
- Make your home more energy and water efficient. Turn off lights, unplug electronics when not in use and save money with utility incentives on light bulbs, energy audits, programmable thermostats and other efficiency improvements.
- The TapIt program (www.rockvillemd.gov/tapit) allows you to fill up a reusable water bottle for free with free access to drinking water at a network of cafés and restaurants around the Washington metropolitan area.

HEALTHY LIVING

- Grow food at home or in a community garden. Make friends, get exercise and reap the benefits of fresh vegetables with the city's community garden plot program. Find the article on this page.
- Purchase local, fresh food from the Rockville Farmers Market (www.rockvillemd.gov/farmers). Beginning on May 14, find farm-fresh fruits and vegetables, bedding plants, cut flowers, herbs, baked goods, and more.
- Volunteer. Opportunities are available at www.rockvillemd.gov/volunteer to clean up streams, remove invasive plants, mark storm drains, or serve on the city's Environment Commission or one of its four committees.

Budget Watch: Fiscal Year 2017

Rockville's Mayor and Council continue budget deliberations with a series of public hearings and work sessions focused on crafting a Fiscal Year 2017 budget that funds the city's priorities.

On March 14, Acting City Manager Craig L. Simoneau presented the Mayor and Council with a FY17 budget proposal. Find the proposed budget at www.rockvillemd.gov/budget.

"The proposed budget funds many of the Mayor and Council's priorities while supporting infrastructure and facility improvements, employee compensation and benefits, and new or expanded city programs and initiatives," Simoneau wrote in a letter presenting the proposal.

The budget, which covers the fiscal year that begins July 1, is scheduled to be adopted by the Mayor and Council in May.

The proposed FY17 operating budget of $126.1 million is an increase of 2.2 percent over last year's total operating budget. The general fund budget, which supports the largest portion of the operating budget, is $76.5 million, a 2.6 percent increase.

The city's current real property tax rate of $0.292 per $100 of assessed valuation is proposed to remain the same for FY17. All residential and commercial property owners pay this tax.

Property tax, the city's largest single source of general fund revenue, is estimated to increase by 3.4 percent from FY 2016, to $39.6 million, mainly due to the most recent round of property assessments. Income tax, the city's second largest single source of general fund revenue, is estimated to decrease by 3.2 percent, to $12 million. This decrease is due to a recent Supreme Court decision and to the state's prior misallocation of the city's income tax revenues.

The proposal includes one less full-time position than in FY16; a 1 percent cost-of-living adjustment and a performance-based merit or step increase for all eligible employees; and increases for the cost of health care benefits. The city's pension costs will decrease by $100,000, to $3.5 million across all funds in FY17.

The proposed FY17 Capital Improvements Program (CIP), the five-year plan for funding new construction and infrastructure maintenance, includes $22.1 million in new funding, combined with a carryover of $49.4 million to support 47

STAY INVOLVED:

Provide comment to the Mayor and Council on the proposed FY 2017 budget:

- In person at a public hearing. (See schedule.)

projects during the fiscal year. The proposed budget includes funding for:

- Repairing and stabilizing the King Farm Farmstead dairy barns.
- Improvements to make parking at Glenview

Mansion comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act.

- One-time maintenance, repairs, and equipment purchases and the design of locker room renovations at the Rockville Swim and Fitness Center.
- Rehabilitation of the Rockville Skate Park.
- Upgrades to the traffic signal at East Jefferson Street and Rollins Avenue.
- Road and sidewalk repair and replacement.

The five-year plan includes a $1.1 million taxpayer-supported debt issue in FY17 for parking improvements at Glenview Mansion, a $3.6 million issue in FY 2018 for expansion and renovation of the Swim and Fitness Center locker rooms, and a $1.8 million issue in FY 2019 for repairs to the Hurley Avenue bridge. Other debt issues are planned to support the water, sewer, stormwater management and refuse funds.

Rockville operates six enterprise funds. They function like a private business, with costs fully recovered through user charges. The enterprise funds are the water fund, the sewer fund, the refuse fund, the stormwater management fund, the parking fund and the RedGate Golf Course fund.

Average residential bills, for recycling and refuse service, water, sewer and stormwater management, will increase under plans previously approved by the Mayor and Council. Based on the FY17 rates, average annual residential expenses for city utilities and property taxes for a family of four will increase by $169.30, or 5 percent. +

SCHEDULE AT A GLANCE:

- Monday, April 4: Public hearing and work session.
- Monday, April 18: Public hearing.
- Monday, April 25: Public record closes.
- Monday, May 2: Work session.
- Monday, May 16: Budget adoption.

Neighborhood Notes

Mayor and Council Invite Comments on 'Rockville's Pike Neighborhood Plan'

First Public Hearing is April 11

The Mayor and Council are beginning their review of the Planning Commission's recommended "Rockville's Pike Neighborhood Plan." On March 14, the Mayor and Council directed staff to open the public record and set two public hearings in order to solicit feedback from the public.

The "Rockville's Pike Neighborhood Plan" was approved by the Planning Commission on March 9. In accordance with Maryland law, the Mayor and Council have up to 150 days to review and act on the plan.

The first public hearing on the plan will be held at 7 p.m. on Monday, April 11 in the Mayor and Council Chambers at City Hall. A second public hearing will be announced at a later date. The public record for written comments will remain open until Monday, May 23. Testimony may be sent to mayorandcouncil@rockvillemd.gov, or by mail to City Clerk's Office, City Hall, 111 Maryland Ave., Rockville, MD 20850.

The Mayor and Council may adopt, amend, reject or send the plan back to the Planning Commission for further consideration. Once adopted by the Mayor and Council, the plan will become part of the city's Comprehensive Master Plan. If the Mayor and Council do not take action within the 150-day period, the Planning Commission's recommended plan will automatically become part of the city's Comprehensive Master Plan.

The recommended plan, which is being updated for the first time since 1989, establishes policies for land use, transportation, parks and other topics along a key 2-mile stretch of the Rockville Pike corridor, south of Rockville Town Center. The plan seeks to ensure that there is a mix of commercial and residential uses along the corridor, that existing residential neighborhoods are protected, that the emerging new neighborhood is attractive, and that Rockville Pike retains and attracts local and national retail to enhance the corridor's economic viability.

The recommended plan can be read in full on the city's website at www.rockvillemd.gov/rockvillespike. Hard copies are available for review at City Hall and the Rockville and Twinbrook libraries. ❖

Tips for Traffic Safety: What Drivers, Bicyclists and Pedestrians Can Do

Spring and summer in Rockville means more bike rides, family walks and road trips. As part of Rockville's Traffic Safety Month in April, the city offers the following tips for drivers, bicyclists and pedestrians to keep in mind throughout the year:

Drivers

- Always come to a complete stop at all stop signs and red lights.
- Even when turning right on red, vehicles must come to a complete stop behind the stop bar, which is the solid white line before an intersection. Stopping at the stop bar allows drivers to see pedestrians and cross-traffic before entering the intersection.

- Always yield to people who are in the crosswalk or waiting at the crosswalk.

Bicyclists

- Use lights on bicycles and wear something bright and reflective, especially when riding at night, so drivers can see you.

- Obey all traffic signals and stop signs.
- Find more tips for riding bicycles in Rockville at www.rockvillemd.gov/bicycling.

Pedestrians

- Always cross the street at a crosswalk.
- Obey all traffic signals. This makes it easier for drivers to see you.
- Find more pedestrian safety tips at www.rockvillemd.gov/pedestrian safety. ❖

Emerald Ash Borer Infestation Found

A new infestation of emerald ash borer (EAB) was recently identified in Rockville neighborhoods and the city is taking steps to prevent affected trees from becoming hazardous.

EAB is a non-native, wood-boring beetle that is specific to ash trees and has killed tens of millions of trees nationwide. This pest feeds on the tree's vascular system throughout the summer and fall, disrupting the movement of water and nutrients within the tree and eventually killing it. Once a significant infestation is identified, treatment options have proven ineffective in saving trees.

The city is working to remove 30-40 street trees on Glenmore Terrace, Lodge Place, Keynes Lane, Northrup Court, Dundee Road and Balmoral Drive. The stumps will be grounded out and new trees will be planted in the fall.

Rockville 11 talked with City Forester Wayne Noll about this pest. Find the report at www.rockvillemd.gov/youtube.

Although Rockville will remove infected trees within city right-of-way, all ash trees are at risk. There are insecticidal treatments that are effective in keeping trees free of EAB if they have not already been infested.

Homeowners with ash trees on their property should consult a state-licensed tree expert to determine the best treatment options. Information on identifying ash trees and symptoms of EAB infestation can be found at http://mda.maryland.gov/plants-pests/Pages/eab\_identification.aspx or www.emeraldashborer.info.

Study Recommendations to Shape the Future of Senior Services

A study to assess city services provided to seniors will allow Rockville to craft a strategic plan for providing senior services over the next decade.

RTI International, the city's contracted consultant, is scheduled to report findings and recommendations from the study to the Mayor and Council on Monday, April 18. The findings include data gathered from a survey of Rockville seniors about what's working and what could be improved.

The next step is to develop a plan for addressing the findings and recommendations contained in the study. City staff will work with the Mayor and Council and Rockville's Senior Citizens Commission to prioritize the recommendations made by RTI International and decide the best way to proceed.

Rockville's senior population is growing and changing rapidly and is expected to increase faster than any other age group in Rockville.

The study seeks to determine if programs and services provided by the city and other government, private and nonprofit partners are expected to meet the needs of Rockville seniors.

For more information, visit www.rockvillemd.gov/seniorstudy, or contact Terri Hilton, the city's senior services manager, at 240-314-8802 or thilton@rockvillemd.gov. ❖

Mayor and Council Consider Change to Recycling and Refuse Bills

Charge Would Appear on County Tax Bills

The Mayor and Council are seeking public input on a proposal that would place the city's fee for recycling and refuse collection on the Montgomery County real property tax bills.

Presently, the city sends bills for recycling and refuse collection directly to customers. The move is being considered as part of the Mayor and Council's work on the proposed Fiscal Year 2017 budget, with a final decision to be made as part of the budget adoption scheduled for Monday, May 16. Learn more about the budget on page 3.

Community members can comment on the proposed change during public hearings on the budget on Monday, April 4 and Monday, April 18; by email to mayorcouncil@rockvillemd.gov; or by mail to: Mayor and Council, 111 Maryland Ave., Rockville, MD 20850. The public record closes on Monday, April 25.

The proposed change would have the following impacts:

- It would eliminate city billing for approximately 2,800 refuse-only accounts.
- For homeowners who pay their county tax bills through an escrow account, payment of the fee would be spread across monthly mortgage payments, similar to homeowners insurance.
- The proposed change would save the city's refuse fund approximately $1.3 million between FY17 and FY 2021.

The change would reduce operational costs, helping Rockville to keep the monthly recycling and refuse service fee as low as possible. Customers will continue to receive the same high level of service. If approved, customers would see the charge for the first time on their July 2016 tax bill for levy year 2016. The proposed annual charge of $424 would be for the period July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2017.

The proposed FY17 budget for the refuse fund is $74 million. ❖

INFO. AT YOUR FINGERTIPS

Water-saving Toilets Available for Low-income Homeowners

The city's Water Conservation Program offers new, water-saving toilets to Rockville homeowners based on financial need. Under the program, city staff will coordinate removal of up to two older, inefficient toilets per home and replace with new water-saving toilets.

Older toilets use between 3.5 and 7 gallons per flush (gpf), while new water saving toilets use 1.28 gpf and, depending on water usage, may reduce water bills.

To qualify, applicants must own their home in Rockville and meet installation criteria, as well as the family-size and income guidelines below. Toilets that use 1.6 gpf are not eligible for replacement.

FAMILY SIZE	MAXIMUM GROSS INCOME
1	$38,250
2	$43,700
3	$49,150
4	$54,600
5	$59,000
6	$63,350
7	$67,750
8	$72,100

Participating homeowners are responsible for maintenance and repair of the toilet fixture, accessories and plumbing features, upon installation. Funds are limited and toilet replacements will be provided on a first-come, first-served basis to eligible applicants.

For more information, and to apply, call the Community Services Division at 240-314-8310. Seniors (60 and older) should call the Senior Services Division at 240-314-8810.

Rockville Police Offer Rabies Clinics, Off-leash Testing

Rabies vaccination clinics are held on the third Sunday of each month through September from 8-10:30 a.m. at the Montgomery County Animal Services and Adoption Center, 7315 Muncaster Mill Road, in Derwood.

The city requires all dogs, cats and ferrets older than 4 months to be vaccinated for rabies and to have a current city license. Failure to vaccinate an animal may subject the owner to a $250 fine. The fine for an unlicensed pet is $50.

The clinics offer free or discounted rabies vaccinations after pet licenses are purchased. Reduced license fees are available for handicapped individuals, public assistance recipients and those 60 years of age or older. To receive service, all animals must be leashed or in carriers and controlled.

The next clinic will be held April 17. For more information, call 240-314-8930 or visit www.rockvillemd.gov/rabiesclinic.

The program is designed to support and empower neighborhood associations and encourage participation by community members. Projects must address one or more of the following:

- Neighborhood outreach and organizing.
- Social events aimed at fostering a sense of community pride.
- Neighborhood crime prevention.
- Neighborhood preservation.
- The acquisition of technology or supplies that directly support an existing community program.
- Neighborhood planning.

Qualified neighborhood organizations could receive up to $1,000 annually and must provide a cash or in-kind match equal to or greater than the grant amount requested. Applications are accepted twice a year, in April and October. Applicants are encouraged to apply as early as possible. Funding is limited.

Projects are evaluated based on the neighborhood's ability to provide a funding match, the level of community involvement, project readiness, and the tangible neighborhood benefit. Projects are evaluated and selected for funding by a committee of City of Rockville staff.

The ROC-N Matching Grant Program is built on the premise that people who live in a neighborhood are its most valuable resource and are best able to identify the community's needs and make improvements or devise solutions to problems.

The USPAACC Business Roundtable Matchmaking & Networking Reception in March, where the division hosted a table with Pepco and Prince George's County, allowed various MFD businesses to discuss their expertise and learn about business opportunities with the city. ## Mayor and Council Consider Economic Incentives REDI Proposals Would Target New and Existing Companies

The city's economic development agency is proposing three incentive programs aimed at reducing commercial property vacancies, enhancing marketing efforts to highlight Rockville as a great business location, and increasing Rockville's competitive advantage over neighboring jurisdictions.

Rockville Economic Development, Inc. (REDI) Executive Director Laurie Boyer presented the proposed programs to the Mayor and Council on Feb. 22. Find a staff report and video of the presentation at www.rockvillemd.gov/AgendaCenter.

The proposed incentives, which would apply to both new and expanding Rockville companies, are:

Rockville MOVE Program: The program, short for Make Office Vacancies Extinct, would supplement an existing Montgomery County program that provides grants to businesses relocating to, or establishing office space in, the county. REDI recommends supplementing the $8-per-square-foot county grant with a $4-per-square-foot city grant for businesses locating within Rockville. Learn more about the county program at www.choosemontgomerymd.com/programs-incentives/financial-tax-incentives/move-program.

Business Expansion

Fund: The program would support existing businesses that are operating in office, industrial or flex space and are seeking to expand. Eligible businesses could receive a grant of up to $5 per square foot to lease or purchase additional space.

Core Improvement

Fund: The fund would provide matching grants to help businesses in specific industries make improvements to their buildings and sites.

Retail and restaurant businesses could receive matching grants of up to $25,000 for facade improvements. Cybersecurity, high technology, life sciences and health care firms, and other identified target industries, could receive matching grants of up to $50,000 for infrastructure improvements such as broadband or electrical upgrades, road improvements and sewer connections.

The Mayor and Council asked REDI to vet the proposed incentives with REDI and Rockville Chamber of Commerce members, commercial real estate brokers, the new Montgomery County Economic Development Corporation and the Montgomery County Business Development Corporation. +

Deadline Approaches for 'TERRIFIC' Kids to Earn Bikes

Good Deeds and Applications are Due April 8

Friday, April 8 is the deadline for Rockville students to complete good deeds and apply to earn a free refurbished bike through the city's TERRIFIC Bikes program.

Organized by the city and the Rockville Bike Hub, the program is open to students in grades 1-5 in Rockville public or private schools and to home school students.

Students must have a sponsor (such as a teacher or relative) to track their progress and must submit the participation form, at www.rockvillemd.gov/terrificbikes, with a postmark no later than Friday, April 8.

TERRIFIC stands for Trustworthy, Earnest, Respectful, Responsible, Involved, Fair, Industrious and Caring. Students receiving bikes will display these attributes by completing six responsible acts, such as perfect school attendance for one month or volunteering at a charitable organization for an hour.

Bike recipients will be recognized at the Mayor and Council meeting on Monday, May 2 as part of the city's observance of Bike Month. Bikes will be distributed on Sunday, May 15.

The Rockville Bike Hub is accepting donations to the program. Visit www.rockvillebikeshub.org or email rockvillebikeshub@gmail.com to learn more.

Spring Leaf Collection Takes Place in April Interactive Map Shows Dates for Neighborhoods

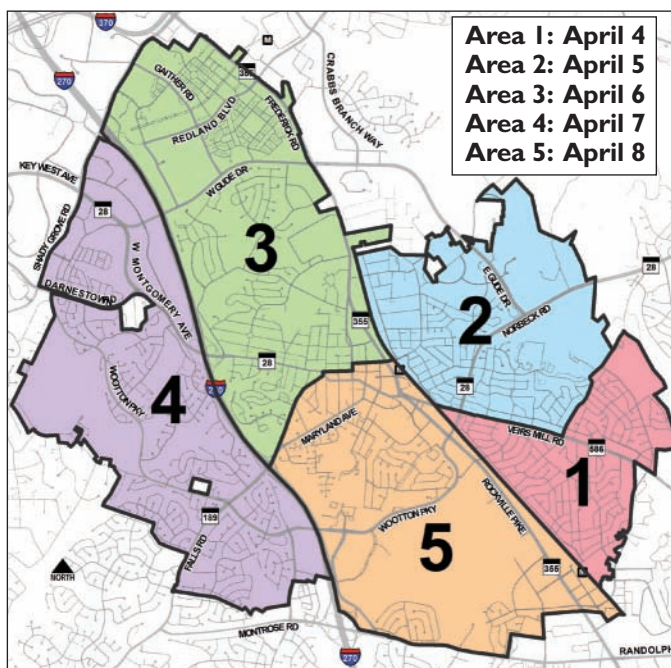

The city will vacuum leaves from neighborhood curbs from April 4–8 in five collection areas throughout Rockville.

Residents should rake leaves into the gutter or immediately adjacent to the pavement, if no curb or gutter exists. Leaves should be raked no earlier than one week before the scheduled collection day. This avoids the accumulation of leaves near and on the streets, which can lead to fire hazards or grass damage.

To learn when your neighborhood collection will be, see the map on this page or use the interactive map at www.rockvillemd.gov/leafcollection, which allows residents to input their address to learn when leaves will be collected in their neighborhood.

Place leaves at the curb by 6 a.m. on the collection dates. Do not use plastic bags. Biodegradable paper lawn bags are acceptable.

After the collection dates, leaves may still be set out in paper lawn bags or 32-gallon trash cans with yard waste on recycling and refuse collection day. For more information, visit www.rockvillemd.gov/recycling-refuse. +
